In the Loop: Your Board at Work

To the lovely Pen Women of the Boca Raton Branch.

Our first luncheon of the year will be here sooner than you think. So, make sure you get your luncheon checks in before the deadline. Believe me, you don't want to miss Angela Page's informative and exciting presentation.

Who knows. You may discover that there's a Screenwriter, Producer, or Director locked deep inside waiting to escape. Angela Page may be the one to help you crack that creative lock and set your screenwriting and movie-making ideas free!

Can't wait to see you all.

Best always,

Michelle Putnik
President

MUSIC NOTES

On Saturday April 30, 2022, at 2-3:30 p.m., The Music Performance and Music Awards took place at the Pen Arts Building in Washington, D.C. The 2020 and 2022 winners were announced. Sheila Firestone presented The Forest Primeval, her first-place 2020 award and the Lakeside Walk with Joe her third-place piece, as well as a newly written song called “Bridges of Love” sung by Matt Butterfield. Grace Joy Reid played her second-place prize-winning work. Each performed and discussed several of their works including their winning selections.
