MUSIC...ART...LETTERS

Dear Members,

I wish all my Pen sisters, their guests and their families a healthy and a happy New Year.

At our December luncheon, Professor Evan Bennett spoke about an artist and a writer from Florida who were African American women. Professor Bennett, who teaches at FAU specializes in Florida's history. This lecture was fascinating and was enjoyed by all.

At our luncheon on January 15th, Dr. Terryl Lawrence will speak about an artist, Tamara De Lempicka who was known for her Art Deco paintings. Two of our Pen sisters were students in Dr. Lawrence's art class and raved about her teaching style.

We are looking forward seeing you all at our luncheons at the Mariposa Restaurant in Nieman Marcus, located in the Boca Raton Town Center. Guests are invited. Please complete the flyers that are posted in the Pen and Palette.

Warm regards,
Brenda Dressler, PhD
President of the Boca Raton Branch of NLAPW.

For your convenience, included on Page 6 is information for our February 19th Luncheon. Please ask Elaine Bossik for a flyer at the January Luncheon.

Family by Dayle Herstik

Our once contained group, now, four separate units.
 Private lives vaguely familiar with each other,
 we know only what is exposed and mentioned.
 No more open hearts or angry tears or shouts of “unfair.”
 No more sharing clothes and beds
 and maybe toothbrushes,
 and chocolate cake in the cluttered kitchen.
 Old intimacies are replaced by the unfamiliar.
 We share lives that were once intertwined.
 Proximity does not matter for near or far, we are distanced.
 Yet, we are still Family.

Our Sunshine State

There's tennis and golf
 Plus shopping at Saks
 Those who like bargains
 Enjoy T.J. Maxx
 With discounts at Michael's
 And early bird dinners
 Cost conscious seniors
 Feel like real winners
 With museums and movies
 And places to go
 The sun always shines
 There's no ice or snow
 Whether swimming or sailing
 Or just playing cards
 Seniors who heed this advice
 Discover a lifestyle in Florida
 That is this side of paradise

I decided to make a beef brisket
 To serve over buttery biscuits
 I'm a dreadful cook
 With nary a book
 So why would I even risk it?
